

POLITICIAN LANDS IN THE CITY JAIL

Charles Wildes Charged With Threatening to Shoot Wife of Neighbor.

REMARKABLE SITUATION

Will Appear Before and Be Prosecuted by Successful Opponents.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., May 29.—Charles D. Wildes, defeated Republican candidate for police justice in the recent municipal campaign, and defeated candidate for the state senate from Wake county at the last general election, was locked up in the city prison today, charged with going to the home of a neighbor, R. W. Dunn, and threatening to shoot Mrs. Dunn because she had complained to the police that Wildes and a party of friends disturbed the neighborhood a few nights ago when he gave a stag supper.

Wildes is said to have been drinking for several days, and his friends declare that his dissipation has unbalanced him mentally. Mrs. Dunn is a daughter of Mayor Wynne, and her husband is one of the most prominent business men of the city.

At the Dunn residence Wildes asked for Mrs. Dunn, and was told by the servant that she was upstairs with a sick baby.

"Tell her to come down now, I am going to shoot her," Wildes is charged with saying.

The charge is that Wildes also called to Mrs. Wynne, repeating the threat.

Mr. Dunn and the police were notified by telephone. The police arrived first. Wildes had then gone into his own house. He went readily with the police to the station, the patrol wagon being called to convey them. He has not sufficiently sobered for his lawyers to confer about getting him out of the trouble.

A remarkable situation is that he must answer for his offense before Police Justice Stronach, who defeated him for police justice, and if there is a trial he must be prosecuted by W. B. Jones, who defeated him for State Senator and is now City Attorney.

HOME FOR PAUPERS

Friends Are Endeavoring to Take Him From the Almshouse.

TREVORTON, PA., May 29.—The Rev. W. C. Heyer, deposed Lutheran minister, who with his mother and sister, slept in the almshouse last night, was distressed yesterday over the realization of their pauperism.

Several townspeople called on him and said a movement was on foot to free the minister and his mother and sister from their present surroundings.

Andrew Shoener, who befriended the pastor after he was forced from the parsonage had a number of residents write to-day to the heads of colleges connected with the Lutheran Synod informing them of the pastor's plight.

EMBROIDERIES! Unprecedented Value-Giving

We'd emphasize this fact particularly: There's never been as fine a lot of Embroideries shown in Richmond and the prices have never been as low anywhere.

We're bold to make this assertion, remembering as we do the wonderful values shown in our Embroidery Section during the past year.

To-day's Embroidery news is strictly a story of quality in combination with the lowest prices that have ever obtained in Richmond for the highest class of work. Nothing finer has ever come from St. Gall, the home of Embroideries.

gold watch, a valuable pistol, a pocket-book and other things, without making any of the members of the family, though it was found that he entered the room occupied by Mr. Barton, his wife and two children, in which a lamp was burning. In the room adjoining Mrs. Barton's parents were sleeping, but they were not disturbed.

Entrance to the house was gained by scaling the kitchen window. Immediately after the robbery was discovered Mr. Barton reported it to the Chesterfield authorities, but no trace of the thief had been found up to late last night.

The house is several miles from the city, on the Nine Mile Road. Council Meetings This Week.

The following regular meetings of the Council committees are scheduled for the week:

KILLS HIS STEPFATHER

Boy Craned With Anger Because He Was Whipped.

FREDERICK, MD., May 29.—Crazed with anger because he had been whipped, Carroll Pierce, about sixteen years old, shot and killed his stepfather, Park Willard, at Knoxville, this county, yesterday evening.

When his stepfather, who was also his uncle, fell the boy put down the shotgun with which he had killed him, and going to Crampton's Hotel, asked for Deputy Sheriff Emory Nelson, to whom he surrendered.

"I have shot Uncle Park," the boy told the officer. "I shot him twice."

The officer, taking the boy with him, hurried to the Willard home, where he found that Willard was dead.

An investigation showed that the boy's first shot had missed his stepfather, the second had struck him in the chest, and the third had struck him in the back.

The boy was using a double-barreled shotgun, and he fired the contents of the second barrel with better aim.

misconduct. Lieutenant Davis served as a first lieutenant in the South Carolina Volunteers during the War with Spain.
